Being a Leader of Leaders

While they were at Hazeroth, Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses because he had married a Cushite woman. They said, “Has the Lord spoken only through Moses? Hasn’t he spoken through us, too?” But the Lord heard them.

Numbers 12.1-2

The Trigger is the marriage
The complaint is whether God speaks through Moses uniquely

Whether you have a real problem or a perceived problem
you still have a problem

Your detractors ought to be treated with great respect

Detractors tend to amplify and redirect a perceived weakness

³ (Now Moses was very humble—more humble than any other person on earth.)

Numbers 12.3

True humility of heart is to think highly of others

4 So immediately the Lord called to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam and said, “Go out to the Tabernacle, all three of you!” So the three of them went to the Tabernacle.

Numbers 12.4

⁵ Then the Lord descended in the pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the Tabernacle. ⁶ “Aaron and Miriam!” he called, and they stepped forward.

Numbers 12.5

And the Lord said to them, “Now listen to what I say:

“If there were prophets among you, I,
the Lord, would reveal myself in visions.
I would speak to them in dreams.

Numbers 12.6

7. But not with my servant Moses. Of all my house, he is the one I trust.
8. I speak to him face to face, clearly, and not in riddles! He sees the Lord as he is.
So why were you not afraid to criticize my servant Moses?”

Numbers 12.8

¹⁰ When the cloud lifted from above
the tent, Miriam's skin was leprous
¹³ So Moses cried out to the Lord,
“Please, God, heal her!”

Numbers 12.10+13

Do you carry the gravitas of one who meets with God?

²³ “The master said, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!’
Matthew 25.23

¹⁷ “Well done!’ the king exclaimed. ‘You are a good servant. You have been faithful with the little I entrusted to you, so you will be governor of ten cities as your reward.’

Luke 19.17

The reward for faithfully stewarding what you have is greater responsibility

Faithful stewardship develops character and competency

⁷² He cared for them with a true heart and led them with skillful hands.

Psalm 78.72

This, then, is how you ought to regard us: as servants of Christ and as those entrusted with the mysteries God has revealed. 2 Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.

1 Corinthians 4.1-2

Can God trust you with your stewardship?

When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.

Luke 12.48

Faithful stewardship builds your readiness to receive from God

¹² I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them at the present time.
